

Cotton Candy

I had the pleasure of working with Bianno on board Cotton Candy, where he assisted in preparing the yacht for a long guest trip. During his time with us, he proved himself to be reliable, enthusiastic, and capable, and an asset to the team.

He carried out multiple provisioning runs in the Williams jet tender, handling it with confidence, whilst also detailing and waxing it to a very good standard. Alongside this he cleaned windows and assisted with completing a full washdown with energy and focus. He approached every task with a positive attitude, receptive to instruction, and carried out his work efficiently and to a high standard.

Over the years I have trained more than fifteen green deckhands and worked closely with many others of different backgrounds and levels of experience, and I genuinely believe that Bianno has what it takes to go far in this industry. He listens, he gets what is required of him without fuss, and he applies himself diligently whether working on his own or as part of the team. Just as importantly, he is easy to be around, keen to learn, and carries a great attitude throughout the day.

I would not hesitate to recommend Bianno for future opportunities within the yachting industry, and I believe he will make a strong addition to any crew.
